

Our group in a few numbers

Founded in 2003, LACOSTE has become one of the regional leaders in the South of France in office and school supplies. It has been able to grow and evolve while keeping a human dimension and favoring proximity with its customers. In 2018, the merger of the company LACOSTE with the company Dactyl Buro Office, created in 1932 and a major regional player in the Centre/North/East and West of France, enabled the construction of the first French multi-local group in stationery, supplies of office, school and office furniture.

Our complementary geographical presences as well as our common societal and human values were the key factors of our alliance.

By joining our respective assets, we wish to develop our partnership, with the permanent objective of satisfying you with a tailor-made offer.
